

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Windham County
SOUTH WINDHAMSupper and Entertainment for Benefit of Ball Team—Birthdays Party.

Mrs. Rena Murdoch spent Wednesday in North Windham.

Mrs. George Stiles and niece Sarah Abbe, were in New London, Monday.

Fred Smith and family have moved to a farm in Bloomfield.

Andrew Metzger of Willimantic has moved to the Simonds place on Babcock Hill.

William Backus, a student at Pratt Institute is at the home of his parents in South Windham for the Easter vacation.

Katherine and Fred Turner, of Hartford are visiting their grandmother, in South Windham.

Mrs. Frank P. Beckwith of Babcock Hill, has been in Norwich for the past week.

Mrs. Hattie Wheeler and son Herbert of North Franklin, and Miss Ida Adams of this town, were guests Sunday, of Mrs. James Maine.

Miss Ethel Bolin went to Newington Wednesday, for the remainder of the week.

Mrs. Renshaw is at her home in Putnam for the Easter vacation.

Mrs. Alfred Card was in Hartford, Monday.

Felix Kirchner is at his home suffering from a hard cold.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Backus are entertaining Mrs. George R. Ennis of Worcester, Mass., over Easter.

Ball Team Benefit.

A supper was given up by the Ladies' Mission society, Wednesday evening, for the new baseball team. A very fine entertainment was enjoyed after the supper.

Birthdays Reception.

Ralph Scribner celebrated the 18th anniversary of his birthday Monday evening by a reception given to his young friends at the home of his parents. The entertainment consisted of music, games and refreshments. The guests presented him a stick pin.

POMFRET CENTER

Mrs. George Pawley and daughter Evelyn have been visiting friends in Canterbury.

Everett E. Brown spoke on Fruit Growing at East Haddam, Monday, and at Eastford Tuesday.

Worthington, the new county improvement agent, spoke on Alfalfa at Wolf Den grange hall Saturday evening. Mr. Kennedy made a most favorable report on those present and his talk was listened to with deep interest.

F. L. Wright has returned from Florida and plans to get his overalls on soon.

Supervisor F. W. Clapp and E. B. Brown attended the recent conference on rural school problems at Worcester.

Mrs. Edward Bowen is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Spencer has entered the employ of Benjamin Grosvenor.

Frank Hildreth is back at his duties at the Pomfret Center office after a long absence.

Robert Rust is suffering from a severe cold.

Miss Isabel Rogers is visiting in Boston.

Miss May Stoddard is at home during her vacation.

SCOTLAND

Mrs. Susan Willis recently returned from a visit with relatives in New Britain.

Harold Eldredge is spending a few days at Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Willoughby were in Lebanon, Tuesday.

Mrs. Ruth Geer and Beatrice Geer spent the vacation in North Windham.

Thomas Clark was a visitor with relatives over the week-end.

A silver medal contest is to be held in the Grange hall, Friday evening, April 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kimball and family were guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kimball.

Miss Martha Babcock of Stonington spent the week recess with relatives here.

Mrs. Sadie Kimball attended the temperance hearing held in Hartford last week.

Edward Clark spent the week-end with relatives in town.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

Mrs. Jessup, who is at the Day Kimball hospital is slowly improving.

Mrs. Stephen Howland died at her home Saturday night.

C. W. Bowen was in town a day.

Are Your Kidneys Well?

Many Norwich People Know the Importance of Healthy Kidneys.

The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. Weak kidneys remove impurities to multiply.

No kidney ill should be neglected. There is possible danger in delay. If you have backache or urinary troubles.

If you are nervous, dizzy or worn out. Begin treating your kidneys at once. Use a proven kidney remedy. None endorsed like Doan's Kidney Pills.

Recommended by thousands. Proved by Norwich testimony. E. C. Roath, 5 Thames St., Norwich, says: "For a number of years I have used Doan's Kidney Pills when having severe pains in my back and other symptoms of kidney trouble. They have always rid me of the trouble. I have procured this remedy at N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store and since using it, I have felt better and stronger in every way."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Roath had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Rheumatism Yields Quickly to Sloan's. You can't prevent an attack of Rheumatism from coming on, but you can stop it almost immediately. Sloan's Liniment gently applied to the sore joint or muscle penetrates in a few minutes to the inflamed spot that causes the pain. It soothes the hot, tender, swollen feeling, and in a very short time brings a relief that is almost unbelievable until you experience it. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25c of any drugist and have it in the house—against Cold, Sore and Swollen Joints, Lumbago, Sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.

CANTERBURY GREEN

How Easter Sunday Will Be Observed—Reopening of Newly Decorated Church at the Plains—Personals.

Easter Sunday there will be special music at the morning services, following the Tullar Meredith music of The Risen Life. The children's concert will occupy the regular Sunday school hour.

Nicholas Schoeppler of Mt. Hermon and Northfield has been helping in the services of the week. He will speak also on Sunday and at the evening service of Christian Endeavor at 7:30. The leader of that meeting will be Fred Safford. It is a consecration meeting, subject, Conquering Discouragement. Ps. 27: 1-14.

The mid-week prayer meeting will have at the parsonage at 7:30, subject, Christ's Disciples as Types of Men of Today. Simon called Peter, Thomas and Matthew.

Union C. E. Meeting.

The union C. E. meeting at the Plains last Sunday night was particularly of interest and drew a full house for the reopening of the newly decorated and repaired church. Representatives of the three Canterbury societies and of the Plainfield C. E. were present and took part in the meeting. The leader from Westminster was Mrs. Columbus Smith, from Canterbury Green Miss Exley, from Plains Mrs. Bliven, from Plainfield, George Dacey.

A former much loved pastor, Rev. Mr. Purdy, from Worcester, Mass., was present and gave an address. Mr. Purdy was the first pastor of this Methodist church and preached for Mr. Speer Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Speer gave welcome to the Endeavorers, and the response and congratulatory were by Rev. Miss Jones. The meeting was a particularly happy one.

At the service last Sunday morning at the Green The Plains was sung by Miss Edith Williams. The subject of the sermon was Behold Thy King Cometh. Matt. 21: 5.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. James Apple had the pleasure of visiting their granddaughter, Dorothy Louise Apple, of Norwich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Apple.

Briefs and Personals.

Charles Kinney has been for a few days at his home on Black Hill. The wife of his son, Elbridge Kinney of Hartford has lately died.

Miss Lulu Bennett of New Bedford spent several days of her Easter vacation with Miss Fannie Brown of Black Hill. Another Easter vacation guest at Beecher Brown's is Miss Margaret Brown of Cleveland, Ohio, a student at Mt. Holyoke college. Her mother was Miss Sanger of Canterbury Green.

The Sanger house being the one now owned and occupied by Frank Hoxsie, Paul Hoxsie has been at home during a week's recess from Proctor academy, Andover, N. H.

Parker Lathrop, from Yale university, is at home for a week.

Houston Lathrop, from Northfield, has a school friend visiting him.

Gladys Lee, from Norwich Free Academy and Vivian Williams from Willimantic grammar grade are younger Easter vacation visitors.

Miss Myrtle Parks of Millville, Mass., spent some days with Mrs. Henry Larkham.

Miss Len Adams of Norwich was with Miss Edith Exley over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams of Willimantic spent Sunday with the former's father, Herbert Williams, at the Green.

Mrs. Dorothy Bennett, teacher at Westminster, and Miss Lucy Pope, teacher at Gay Head, visited schools in Hartford last week.

Mrs. M. A. Francis has returned from Moorook. Her nephew, Forest Emsworth, of Sheltonville, Mass., visited her last week.

Dance at Grange Hall.

There was a dance at Grange hall last Saturday night which was much enjoyed. An orchestra from Jewett City furnished the music.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Meeting of Clover Circle—New York Man Buys Underwood Place.

H. S. May, William Richardson and Windsor White are home for the Easter vacation.

The Clover circle met last Saturday afternoon with Ruth Witter. Subject: Good Bird, the Indian. The program was in charge of Florence Lawson.

Schools closed Friday for a vacation of one week.

Buy Underwood Place.

Mr. Simonson of New York has purchased the Charles Underwood place and will have it put in repair for a summer residence.

H. B. Comings and helpers are painting the buildings on the David Aldrich place.

Meetings were held Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at the chapel.

PACKER

Mrs. Martha Johnson has returned after spending several weeks with Mrs. Cornell at East Hill.

Nazare Landry was a recent visitor in New London.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Douglas of Norwich called on Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Barber Wednesday.

Douglas is spending the Easter vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Barber.

There was a large attendance at the auction on the late Andrew Adams farm Wednesday. There were people from Lisbon, Griswold, Plainfield, Canterbury, Scotland, Willimantic and Norwich.

WARRENVILLE

Mrs. B. C. Bugbee was the guest of her aunt in Providence three days last week.

Mrs. S. L. Case spent the week-end in Willimantic, the guest of Mrs. C. A. Lee.

Wells has moved his family to the Perry place.

The W. H. S. students are spending their Easter recess at their homes in this village.

Mrs. Carrie Simonds is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Bassett.

H. B. Bennett gave a dance in Baker's hall last Friday evening.

D. H. Shippee is building a bungalow for a New York party on land near his home.

BROOKLYN

Frank White, Found Sleeping in a Barn, Sent to Jail—Edwin Bennett Deputy Sheriff.

Bert Terry has moved from the tenement bought by Frederick Bennett into the Joseph Small house on the Wauregan road.

Ethan Baker has been visiting friends in Central Falls, R. I.

Miss Florence M. Blake recently visited relatives in Jewett City.

Charles Pegrum has moved into the house of Henry Brown and is to work the coming season for Mrs. Thomas S. Mather, caring for her garden and lawn.

Mrs. Turner, of South Manchester, with her grandchild, Alma Foster, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George F. Gennep.

Miss Helen L. Witter attended the wedding of a friend in Fall River, Mass., the past week.

Carroll Lawton is home for the Easter vacation from Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

Raymond Kimbrough is spending his Easter vacation in town.

Charles Edwin Blake came home for a week vacation from his school.

Paul Chapman, a student at Worcester Polytechnic, is home for the Easter vacation.

Miss Lillian Parker is visiting her uncle, George Parker, and wife.

Vagrant Sent to Jail.

Sunday morning Constable Harry Lathrop arrested Frank White, who he found sleeping in a barn on the farm lately owned by Charles E. Young. He was brought before Clarence E. Cundall, justice of the peace, Monday morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of being a vagrant and was sentenced to the Windham county jail for thirty days and to pay costs amounting to $12.58.

Mrs. Wesley Ide and son, of East Hartford have been visiting Mrs. Flora Gardiner and mother.

Appointed Deputy.

It is generally understood about town that Sheriff Charles A. Gates has appointed Edwin Bennett one of his deputies.

ELMVILLE

Mill Closed for Holiday—Fire—Personal Notes.

The Sonhill Worsted mill shut down Thursday night for the remainder of the week.

The Center school is closed for the Easter vacation.

Miss Dorothea Wilson has a freak chicken with four legs.

Fire at Pike Place.

A woodshed in the rear of Mrs. C. H. Pike's house was destroyed by fire Monday afternoon. The neighbors responded promptly to the call for help, but owing to lack of water it could not be saved. One end of the house was badly scorched. The fire caught from a stove used for cooking chicken feed.

A number from here attended the chowder supper Saturday night given by the men of the Union Baptist church at East Killingly.

J. H. Milligan has sold the Frederick Foster place in Ely to Mrs. Flora Chapdelaine of Central Village.

Mrs. Henry R. Wallace of Chestnut Hill spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Herbert Hopkins.

Mrs. Henry V. Haswell is visiting in New London.

Arthur Kerwarck of Wauregan spent the week-end with George W. Kennerly.

Herbert Hopkins is at Oakland Beach painting and renovating his cottages for the season.

Mrs. Fred Elston has been spending a few days in Pascoag.

Mrs. Harvey Mowry of Oakland, R. I. was the guest Sunday of Mrs. Ida Place.

Miss Clara West of the Hill Crest house goes to her home in Moorook for the Easter vacation.

Mrs. Ethel Edwards to her home in Providence.

George Desnoia to Greenville, R. I., and Andrew Peters to Fitchburg, Mass.

WINDHAM

Boston Fishermen at the Inn—Services of Passion Week—Vacation Visitors.

C. Arthur Keeney has been in Woodstock this week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harvey.

W. S. Chappell of New London is having his summer home gotten ready and will occupy it in a short time.

Miss Anna Bates of the Gilbert school, Winsted, is spending the Easter vacation at home.

Miss Dorothy Fenton of Winthrop, Mass., is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. J. C. Fenton.

A part of his vacation in Wauregan in company with his uncle, E. W. McGuire, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Ready for the Trout Broods.

A party of fishermen from Boston is at the Inn.

Miss Mary Little is recovering from an attack of the grip.

Mrs. E. W. McGuire, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest of her brother, Dr. Guild.

Easter will be observed at both St. Paul's and the congregational churches with special sermons and music.

Passion Week Services.

A Passion week service was held in the Congregational chapel Thursday evening. There were selections by the male quartette and mixed quartette and an address by the pastor.

Missionary Meeting.

The Woman's Missionary society met in the chapel Tuesday afternoon with an attendance of twenty. The topic of the chapter on The Child at School, from the study book, The Child in the Midst were given by Mrs. John Potter, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. M. R. Plumb, Miss Grace Bates, Miss Lyman and Mrs. Pegrum.

THOMPSON

Rev. John K. Moore spent several days in Hartford last week.

Misses Martha Knight and Hannah Tracy, who have been visiting relatives for several weeks, have returned home.

Miss Annie Dunning, a teacher at Briar Cliff Manor, N. Y., is spending the vacation at her home here.

Mrs. James Wilson is entertaining her daughter and grandson from Maine for a couple of weeks.

The wife of Rev. Brewster Boardman is critically ill at the Day Kimball hospital.

Fast day services were held at the Congregational vestry, Rev. Arnold Dinginza being the speaker.

George Crosby has returned home from the Day Kimball hospital.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY

Mrs. Arthur Spicer of South Willington is visiting her cousin, Miss Harriett Slingby.

Several from here attended the farmers' institute at Eastford Wednesday.

Mrs. E. B. Boston is the guest of his uncle, Stephen Slingby, who is with her son in Philadelphia the past week.

Mabel Barrett is visiting her mother for the Easter vacation.

NORTH STERLING

Four big forest fires could be seen from here last Sunday.

George Pierce caught a fine looking coon in a steel trap last week.

Harold Baker of Bates college, who

A GOOD INVESTMENT

Men who have worn our clothes will tell you that they are a good investment.

Right now--this Spring, is a good time to find out about our clothes. You take no chance of dissatisfaction, our Ironclad Guarantee gives you full protection.

Our assortments of New Spring Merchandise are especially large and decidedly attractive.

WE ARE SHOWING THE BEST AND NEWEST OF

Everything in Women's Shoes, Men's and Boys' Wear From Head to Foot

SUITS
$5.50 to $20.00

WOMEN'S SHOES
$1.25 to $3.50

REGAL

A Smart Style for Every Occasion

SHOES

MEN'S SHOES
$1.75 to $5.00

NEW HATS
$1.00 to $2.50

NEW SHIRTS
45c to $1.50

CHILDREN'S SHOES
70c to $1.50

NEW TROUSERS
$1.00 to $4.50

Brooklyn Outfitters

266 to 270 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.

"The Store That Satisfies"

has been visiting friends here, has returned home.

Mrs. Marion Brown is confined to her home with grip.

Mrs. Joseph Dumas and son, Fred, have been at his farm here for a few days. His health is slowly improving.

Byron Burdard is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Randall.

Harriet Lawton of Westboro, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Abbie Hillery.

Mrs. Addie Gibson has purchased a new automobile.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Easter Party—Students Home for Vacation—Business Sold.

Miss Helen Waldo Tillingham, who attends the Phelps school, Wallingford, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Tillingham.

Mrs. George Greene has returned to her home in Millville, R. I., after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Edgerton.

Alan Gould left Tuesday to spend a part of his vacation in Wauregan in company with his uncle, E. W. McGuire, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Ready for the Trout Broods.

A party of fishermen from Boston is at the Inn.

Miss Mary Little is recovering from an attack of the grip.

Mrs. E. W. McGuire, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest of her brother, Dr. Guild.

Easter will be observed at both St. Paul's and the congregational churches with special sermons and music.

Passion Week Services.

A Passion week service was held in the Congregational chapel Thursday evening. There were selections by the male quartette and mixed quartette and an address by the pastor.

Missionary Meeting.

The Woman's Missionary society met in the chapel Tuesday afternoon with an attendance of twenty. The topic of the chapter on The Child at School, from the study book, The Child in the Midst were given by Mrs. John Potter, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. M. R. Plumb, Miss Grace Bates, Miss Lyman and Mrs. Pegrum.

THOMPSON

Rev. John K. Moore spent several days in Hartford last week.

Misses Martha Knight and Hannah Tracy, who have been visiting relatives for several weeks, have returned home.

Miss Annie Dunning, a teacher at Briar Cliff Manor, N. Y., is spending the vacation at her home here.

Mrs. James Wilson is entertaining her daughter and grandson from Maine for a couple of weeks.

The wife of Rev. Brewster Boardman is critically ill at the Day Kimball hospital.

Fast day services were held at the Congregational vestry, Rev. Arnold Dinginza being the speaker.

George Crosby has returned home from the Day Kimball hospital.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY

Mrs. Arthur Spicer of South Willington is visiting her cousin, Miss Harriett Slingby.

Several from here attended the farmers' institute at Eastford Wednesday.

Mrs. E. B. Boston is the guest of his uncle, Stephen Slingby, who is with her son in Philadelphia the past week.

Mabel Barrett is visiting her mother for the Easter vacation.

NORTH STERLING

Four big forest fires could be seen from here last Sunday.

George Pierce caught a fine looking coon in a steel trap last week.

Harold Baker of Bates college, who

EAST KILLINGLY

Personal Items—Death of Mrs. Imogene Blandings.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dumas and son, Fred, have been at his farm here for a few days. His health is slowly improving.

Byron Burdard is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Randall.

Harriet Lawton of Westboro, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Abbie Hillery.

Mrs. Addie Gibson has purchased a new automobile.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Easter Party—Students Home for Vacation—Business Sold.

Miss Helen Waldo Tillingham, who attends the Phelps school, Wallingford, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Tillingham.

Mrs. George Greene has returned to her home in Millville, R. I., after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Edgerton.

Alan Gould left Tuesday to spend a part of his vacation in Wauregan in company with his uncle, E. W. McGuire, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Ready for the Trout Broods.

A party of fishermen from Boston is at the Inn.

Miss Mary Little is recovering from an attack of the grip.

Mrs. E. W. McGuire, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest of her brother, Dr. Guild.

Easter will be observed at both St. Paul's and the congregational churches with special sermons and music.

Passion Week Services.

A Passion week service was held in the Congregational chapel Thursday evening. There were selections by the male quartette and mixed quartette and an address by the pastor.

Missionary Meeting.

The Woman's Missionary society met in the chapel Tuesday afternoon with an attendance of twenty. The topic of the chapter on The Child at School, from the study book, The Child in the Midst were given by Mrs. John Potter, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. M. R. Plumb, Miss Grace Bates, Miss Lyman and Mrs. Pegrum.

THOMPSON

Rev. John K. Moore spent several days in Hartford last week.

Misses Martha Knight and Hannah Tracy, who have been visiting relatives for several weeks, have returned home.

Miss Annie Dunning, a teacher at Briar Cliff Manor, N. Y., is spending the vacation at her home here.

Mrs. James Wilson is entertaining her daughter and grandson from Maine for a couple of weeks.

The wife of Rev. Brewster Boardman is critically ill at the Day Kimball hospital.

Fast day services were held at the Congregational vestry, Rev. Arnold Dinginza being the speaker.

George Crosby has returned home from the Day Kimball hospital.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY

Mrs. Arthur Spicer of South Willington is visiting her cousin, Miss Harriett Slingby.

Several from here attended the farmers' institute at Eastford Wednesday.

Mrs. E. B. Boston is the guest of his uncle, Stephen Slingby, who is with her son in Philadelphia the past week.

Mabel Barrett is visiting her mother for the Easter vacation.

NORTH STERLING

Four big forest fires could be seen from here last Sunday.

George Pierce caught a fine looking coon in a steel trap last week.

Harold Baker of Bates college, who

HEBRON

Mrs. John Randall of Willimantic was in town Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. A. R. Gilbert.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Douglas of Boston were in town to attend the funeral of Mrs. Douglas' sister, Mrs. Gillett.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Cummings of Coventry were in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bissell of East Hampton were recent callers in town.

Miss Josephine Hart is at her home in Montville for the week.

Mrs. W. O. Seyms is much improved in health.

Mr. David Gott of Hartford is the guest of her grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Horton.

The funeral of Thomas Johnson was held Saturday at his home. The Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald conducted the service. Mr. Johnson was 84.

Frank Porter is moving into the Fitch Jones house until his is ready to occupy.

STAFFORDVILLE

Good Profits from Recent Play—Special Easter Observance.

The play, Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard, was given in Memorial hall at Stafford Hollow, Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Staffordville M. E. church. It was very successful and a good sum added to the treasury.

There will be an Easter sermon with special music Sunday morning in the M. E. church. Sunday evening the Epworth League topic will be Easter, the Promise of Immortality.

John Morrell has bought of Willis Belcher the house occupied by B. G.

Deep Seated Colds YIELD TO DR. BULL'S Cough Syrup

THROUGH ITS MILD SOOTHING ACTION ON THROAT AND LUNGS at Drugists 25c